

SUSIE COLIVER

Education	University of California, Berkeley: B.A. Environmental Design	1976
Practice	Herman Coliver Locus Architecture	Present
	Herman & Coliver: Architecture/ Planning & Design Studio	1991 - 2008
	Robert Herman Associates	1978-91
Awards	Congregation B'nai Israel, Religious Architecture Design Award AIA Faith & Form, Award for Design Excellence	2007
	Peninsula Temple Sholom, Religious Art & Architecture Design Honor Award AIA Faith & Form, Award for Design Excellence	2004
	Peninsula Temple Beth El, Religious Arts Award AIA Faith & Form, Religious Art & Architecture Design Award	2002
	Sherith Israel, Temple House Transformation, San Francisco AIA Faith & Form, Award for Design Excellence	1998
	Reutlinger Student Center, Berkeley SF/AIA Interior Design Award,	1992
	University High School Library, San Francisco AIA/ALA National Award of Excellence,	1985
Current and Recent Work	North Peninsula Jewish Campus Performing Arts Center, Foster City Temple Judea, Tarzana Congregation Kol Shofar, Tiburon, CA Salvation Army Turk Street Center, San Francisco
Teaching	University of California, Berkeley: Department of Environmental Design Instructor for introductory design studios Visiting Critic	1987 & 1990 1979-09
Community	President/ Board Member, Jewish Film Festival Trustee, Jewish Museum San Francisco/Chair Program Committee Strategic Planning Committee, Congregation Beth Sholom Board Member, LEAP Learning Through Education in the Arts Project	1995-2007 1994-98 1998 1989-93
Lectures	Building in Good Faith, Coalition on the Environment and Jewish Life The Architecture of Sacred Spaces, Judah Magnes Museum Pacific Energy Center, San Francisco. Political Eras & Social Housing The Ideas that Give Meaning to Our Work: Schools, Synagogues, Housing	March 2003 Feb, 2003 May, 2000 3/98